

571 Kiewa Street Albury NSW

Located in a superb central location this quality office is being offered to the market for the first time in decades.

With a total area of approximately 452 square metres this building includes a multitude of individual offices as well as open office area, welcoming reception, a large board room with its own kitchenette and both male and female amenities. Also included are six on-site car parking spaces at the rear which is incredibly rare for the Albury CDB.

With charming period features this property would suit a large array of occupiers wanting something a little better than the norm for their professional purposes.

Landlord incentives can be made available subject to lease term, please enquire today to discuss this fantastic opportunity with one of our team.
